

Lifestyle Insurance

We understand that arranging insurance to protect your Lifestyle can be confusing, time-consuming and, often, costly. We genuinely believe that you will benefit from the services of Luker Rowe.

We appreciate the complexities of modern Lifestyles with families having diverse interests, assets and risks. From second homes to holiday lets, family fleets to children at university, fine art to classic cars, antiques to specimen jewellery. Not to mention watercraft, sports and hobby equipment and, of course, travel.

We like to think we have thought of everything when it comes to protecting our clients' Lifestyles. We are experts in tailoring insurance solutions to fit individual needs and provide independent and impartial advice, including advice on emerging risks such as identity fraud and personal data, as well as in-depth Risk Management tools and guidance.

- One solution, one broker, one number to call.
- Experience and expertise.
- Dedicated relationship managers.
- Speed and efficiency.
- Face to face consultations.

Our Portfolio approach means that our clients have one solution, one broker and one number to call.

Our dedicated relationship managers have experience and expertise across multiple classes of Lifestyle insurance and we offer face-to-face consultations so we can truly appreciate your priorities and individual requisites. If our advice is that your requirements will be best met by multiple solutions, we simplify and package our offering with one renewal date to maximise speed and efficiency.

We cover:
