AV & Events Insurance

Luker Rowe have been arranging insurances for the Audio Visual and Event Industry for the last 30 years and because of this have a deep understanding of the industry and their insurance needs. Over the years we have used our knowledge to develop policy wordings and build partnerships with Insurance Companies who can offer the best cover.

We have a team of people who understand what you do, the equipment you use, the Terms and Conditions you apply and the freelancers you employ.

They are approachable, flexible and happy to discuss your own individual requirements and offer a solution.
